Position: Associate or Full professor

Location: Rabat, Morocco

Salary: competitive with international standards

Status: Full-time

Application deadline: 31th January 2022

Expected starting: September 2022

The Faculty of Governance, Economics and Social Sciences (FGSES) at Mohammed VI Polytechnic University (UM6P) is hiring an Associate or Full Professor in Sociology/Social science. We are especially interested in applicants having strong backgrounds in quantitative as well as in qualitative methods, and also a strong general culture in economics, history, political science and philosophy. Interdisciplinary profiles with PhD in sociology, in economics or in political science are welcome.

Founded in 2016, Mohammed VI Polytechnic University is a non-profit university created to provide world-class educational experiences and produce leading-edge research in the physical and social sciences. UM6P was established to serve Southern countries, with an emphasis on providing research relevant to Africa, and training students from the continent. The FGSES campus is located in the Morocco's capital city, Rabat – a large cosmopolitan city on the Atlantic coast midway between Casablanca and Tanger.

Applicants must have a Doctorate or PhD in sociology, economics or political science. They must provide evidence of effective teaching and must have strong skills in research – with significant scientific publications in one or more of the social science disciplines.

All applicants must provide:

- a detailed curriculum vitae
- a full list of publications
- one example of academic publication
- proof of degree
- evidence of effective teaching experience at university level
- evidence of successful directing or co-directing research at Masters and PhD levels

Application: the applicants must send a single “zipped” file containing all the items above (in the order listed) to the following address : Socio.Recrut@um6p.ma by 31th January 2022

The preselected candidates will have an oral interview by videoconference. The candidates selected at the end of these interviews will be invited, during a final selection phase, to present their research and to make a course simulation.
